

Kitchen assistant Halifax Trianglen

Would You Like to Join Halifax's Kitchen Team at Trianglen?

At Halifax, we prioritize well-being, teamwork, and fair working conditions. We communicate with each other respectfully and professionally. We work together as a team and are always ready to help one another succeed. Our goal is to create a fantastic workplace where well-being, personal development, and mutual respect form the foundation of everything we do.

About the Job

We are looking for a part-time Kitchen Assistant who would like to help us do what we do best: create delicious, homemade burgers of the highest quality.

As a Kitchen Assistant, you will learn and master the fundamental skills of working in a professional kitchen and, over time, become confident working independently. With us, you will gain valuable knowledge, confidence, and hands-on experience, while learning the correct procedures for hygiene, food safety, cleaning, and quality control. You will also develop a solid understanding of our ingredients and products.

We share responsibilities and help each other out, including assisting with dishwashing and cleaning tasks when needed.

If you are quick on your feet, work accurately and reliably, and would like to become part of a dedicated and hardworking team, this could be the perfect job for you.

P.S. English is the working language in our kitchen, and we welcome employees of all nationalities.

We Are Looking for Someone Who:

- Can work 60-100 hours a month
- Is available to work evenings and weekends
- Is flexible

What We Offer

- A strong team with an informal culture and a positive working atmosphere
- Opportunities for development through our internal training programs
- Social events and activities
- A 30% employee discount for you and up to three friends at our restaurants and other concepts within NoHo Partners Denmark

If this sounds like the right opportunity for you, upload your application and CV and tell us why you should be part of the Halifax team.
